JANUARY 2012 LINCOLN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Where kids achieve!

Jump Rope for Heart

Lincoln Students will Jump Rope for Heart in P.E. classes the first week of January — February 3. Prizes will be awarded for top jump rope tricks and skill levels in each class. Collection envelopes for the American Heart Association JRFH will be sent out the 2nd week of January. Collection is strictly voluntary and should only be sought from friends and family. Please do not have your child go door to door! The class collecting the most JRFH funds will be honored with a mini-field trip to Blackhawk Lanes for a bowling party in March. This year's theme is "It Takes Heart to be a Hero" !

Edline

Sterling Public Schools is pleased to offer Edline, a web application for parental online access to students' assignments and grades. We hope you find the Edline service to be an effective communication tool. You can set up an account at www.edline.net or through the "Online Access to Students grades" link on our school's homepage. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact the school office at 625-1449.

Outside Temperatures

Students will be outside before school and at recess as long as the temperature and wind chill are above 15 degrees.

Please have your child dress appropriately with coats, hats, gloves and boots.

SPS Weather Website

The Superintendent of Sterling Public Schools, Tad Everett, has established a weather website with specific, factual and clear information on the process of how decisions are made to delay or cancel school due to inclement weather.

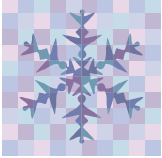

To view this information please visit the District Website at www.sterlingpublicschools.org

Click on Superintendent and then select "Inclement Weather Information". Printed copies of the information are available in our school office.

Hat Day 2/3/2012

Donations will benefit the American Heart Association.

Students may wear a had to school for a coin donation of your choice.
